

Pay-per-click (PPC) advertising

Pay-per-click (PPC) advertising refers to the text ads or "sponsored" entries you have seen in search engines such as MSN and Google. As the name implies, you pay only if the viewer clicks on your ad. If your budget is limited, the secret is knowing how low you should bid without losing sales or visitors and which PPC engines give you the best value for money.